

"AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research"

Who we are...

The Saint Louis Branch of AAUW supports the broad goals and actions of AAUW by holding public outreach events, engaging in political action, collaborating with local organizations and educational institutions regarding AAUW topics, and by supporting area young women and girls directly. We promote a "You Can Do It" approach. We are one of five branches in the Saint Louis, MO, area that comprise the AAUW Metro Saint Louis Interbranch Council (IBC).

We will be discussing a tabling at the St Louis Earth Day Festival to increase visibility for AAUW and its work; Work Smart updates; IBC update (Spring Fling, Title IX project); a panel discussion with the Press Club of St. Louis; state conference update (see article on page 6); other topics of interest and announcements. Contact Ellen at ironnew@msn.com or her phone number in your directory.

*St. Louis Earth Day has built its reputation on its annual Festival, which is now recognized as one of the largest Earth Day celebrations in the country but touches over a million individuals through its year-round programming like Recycling On the Go, Green Dining Alliance, and Earth Day Action Grants. The festival will take place on April 21-22, Forest Park on the Muny grounds, 11 am to 5 pm daily.

Because Saturday, April 21st, is the same date as Spring Fling, it is requested that anyone not attending Spring Fling please volunteer to work shifts at the festival on the 21st. Of course, all members are asked to sign up with Sally McGowan (sopawsam@sbcglobal.net) for shifts (two hours or as long as you can) for either (or both) days.

Happy May Birthday!

Welcome to Our Newest Member!

Kathleen Farrell joined our branch in December, at Sue Barley's luncheon for the branch. She retired from teaching in the Department of Communication at St. Louis University where an award was named for her: the Kathleen Farrell Outstanding Graduate Student Award. She received an S.A. in History/Communication from Northern Illinois University; and an M.A. and a Ph.D. in Rhetoric/Communication from the University of Pittsburgh. She volunteers with the St. Louis Urban Debate League and the League of Women Voters of St. Louis, where she served as co-president and produced the League of Women Voters/St. Louis Post Dispatch Voters Guide. Kathleen said that she is interested in legislative work, likes to work with middle school and high school students, and likes book clubs and water aerobics. She was honored at the 2017 Missouri Women's Network's Equality Day at the Clayton Plaza Hotel last August 26th. Her contact information to add to your membership directory is 314-773-2876 (H), 314-302-8400 (C), and kathleenfarrell@earthlink.net.

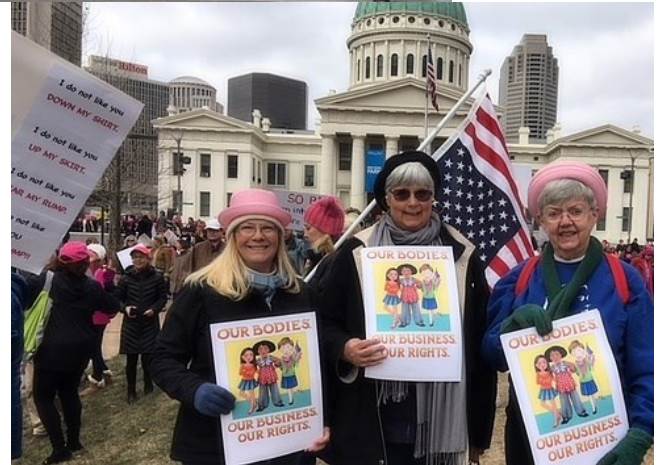

Long-time Member Mary Bruemmer celebrated her 98th birthday on February 26th. Jan and Carol visited with her that day, arriving just after her lunch outing. Mary is a delight to visit. She has lots to tell us. Although she has vision difficulty, her friend at St. Louis University, Mary Krieg, reads our mail to her.

Mary is in the directory in case you would like her address.

The Women's March-St. Louis Anniversary January 20, 2018

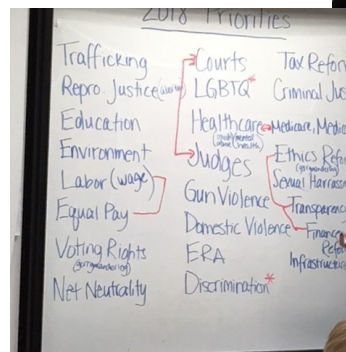

It was a chilly, dreary day, but the crowd kept coming. And coming.

At least three of our members rallied with the crowd. Sally, Ellen, and Jan carry the signs from Mary Engelbreit that were used in the 2017 march.

Missouri Women's Network Legislative Day January 13, 2018

A summary of the retreat was in last month's newsletter. Carol (left), Sally (center), and Ellen (right) attended. Linda Lindsey also attended. The board (left) was used to record priority suggestions in a brainstorming session. The priorities then were voted on.

Public Policy Update by Lisa Taylor

The Chronicle of Higher Education had a very lengthy article in their January 26, 2018, publication titled Making Sexual Assault Hearings Fair: How colleges Train and Choose Those Who Serve on Title XI Panels Is Changing.

As we read and share information from the article, there are a couple of things we should keep in mind. Remember,

- The University of Virginia is a “flagship” university
- Laws, policies, and procedures vary from state to state, and
- Financial resources for colleges are very challenging at this time.

There was a four-year investigation of the University of Virginia because they failed to resolve sexual assault complaints “promptly and equitably,” according to the U.S. Department of Education for Civil Rights, which was the basis for a “hostile environment.” Therefore, they had violated the gender equity law also known as Title IX. Other issues involved were the solicited panelists for the disciplinary process which gave the appearance of a conflict of interest and the panelists did not have proper training on how to understand forensic or medical evidence, such as rape kits, drug or alcohol tests.

As a resolution agreement, the University agreed to change their sexual assault policies. There were changes made as to who would serve as panelists, and their responsibilities were more defined.

The main points of consideration when selecting a panel are: willingness to serve, lack of bias, good bedside manner, confidentiality, and diversity. Having a diverse panel is crucial because it is probably the most obvious to victims of sexual assault and will give them an impression of having a fair and equitable hearing and not the expected “faculty representation.”

Colleges cannot overlook the important and lasting work of sexual assault hearing panelists and the service they provide to the campus community. Colleges have an obligation to find and train the right people, and the right people will have a fair and effective panel.

Note: Let Lisa know if you have a topic you would like to have explored.

"Gender equality is more than a goal in itself. It is a precondition for meeting the challenge of reducing poverty, promoting sustainable development, and building good governance." -- Kofi Annan

ST LOUIS INTERBRANCH COUNCIL

The AAUW St. Louis Metro Interbranch Council (IBC) consists of representatives from each of the St. Louis AAUW branches. The following officers from each branch are members of IBC: president, program vice president, membership vice president, and a member at large. All AAUW members are invited to attend meetings and participate in IBC activities.

The next IBC meeting will be Tuesday, May 22, 7 p.m., at the Daniel Boone County Library. All AAUW members are welcome to attend. We will share information about the Spring Fling held on April 21, 2018.

It's almost time again for our annual Spring Fling. See the flyer on page 8 for details and a registration form.

We are very fortunate that Sally has arranged for Miss Jubilee to be the entertainment after lunch. Miss Jubilee has been entertaining audiences in St. Louis and beyond since 2007. Led by powerhouse vocalist Valerie Kirchhoff, Miss Jubilee plays an energetic blend of Hot Jazz, Hokum, and Low-Down Blues from the 1920s and 30s. Their one-of-kind repertoire draws heavily from the bluesy and swingin' sounds of St. Louis and Chicago's south side. Fueled by a hard driving rhythm section and gutbucket horns, Miss Jubilee is a favorite for fans of all ages.

The fundraiser this year is sponsored by the Kirkwood-Webster Groves Branch. It will be a ticket raffle of PIZZAZZY PURSES. If you would like to donate one or help with the contents of one, please call or e-mail Carol or Jan. The purses are to contain items that are “secret.” The only clue is a note you place on the outside that hints as to what is inside—punny, funny, poetic, or just plain.

Ingredients:

- 1 purse (gently used is fine)
- 1 gift card, wrapped (donated is best)
- Filler, wrapped (optional)
- Décor as needed
- 1 poem (Example:

A dinner date tonight?
 “Bid” on this bag, it’s just right!
 The card inside adds trend-setting might
 To a lovely date that’s just right!

AAUW National Conference for College Women Student Leaders

May 30–June 2, 2018 • University of Maryland, College Park

NCCWSL is the place for women students to harness their leadership potential and view the world through new perspectives. They will leave with the tools needed to propel their career forward and drive change on their campus or in their community.

Thanks to the efforts of Deb McWard, AAUW Missouri college-university liaison, the St. Louis Interbranch Council (IBC) has sent students of area college and university members to NCCWSL for the past several years. Six (now five) branches and generous individual members pool funds to pay for registration and air fare, plus extra funds to cover ground transportation and off-campus meals.

The students who were selected to attend the conference this coming May are

- Taylor Michl, a junior at Webster University. Her majors are Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and Spanish. She is an undergraduate research assistant in the Psychology Department investigating the career development of psychologists working in oncology. She was chosen as one of ten student liaisons on the Student Conduct and Sexual Offense Hearing Boards. She also has been the development intern at Doorways, a nonprofit residential center for HIV+ people in poverty in Missouri and Illinois.
- Shima Rostami, a graduate student at Lindenwood University. She is working on her doctorate in education. She earned a B.S. in Islamic Jurisprudence and Law from Imam Sadiq University, Tehran, and an M.S. in Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement, Lindenwood (Belleville, IL). Shima is completing a research project that raises awareness of human trafficking on college campuses. She is willing to be the AAUW liaison at Lindenwood University. For the past two years, Shima has been the part-time program director for the St. Charles Coalition Against Human Trafficking (SCCAT) and has been the driving force behind three conferences open to the public. Under her leadership, SCCAT put together the first teach training for Ft. Zumwalt School District (St. Peters, MO); represented MO at a regional conference by the Office of Violence Against Women in Kentucky; and has made connections with law enforcement officers, Homeland Security, U.S. Immigration and Customs agents, whom she often includes in presentations. She also is a members of AAUW Ballwin-Chesterfield.

NCCWSL by the Numbers (2017 Demographics): 800 conference attendees; 306 colleges and universities represented; 100 exhibitors at the Career and Graduate School fairs; 48 states represented.

AAUW by the Numbers: 800 college-university members; 130 student organizations; 1,000 campus representatives; 8,000 student associates on campuses.

IBC ¡ADELANTE! BOOK GROUP

This group, started in 1996 as a component of AAUW's diversity outreach program, meets in September, October, and January through May to discuss books written from diverse perspectives. AAUW members from all St. Louis area branches are welcome.

2018 INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS LECTURE SERIES The Ethical Society Auditorium, 9001 Clayton Rd, 63117

AAUW Metro St. Louis Interbranch Council joins with the Tuesday Women's Association (TWA) to present four free lectures to the community on aspects of international relations. Gather at 10 a.m. for coffee and social time. Attendees are invited to bring a bag lunch and stay afterwards to further discuss the topic.

Mar 13: Human Trafficking: An International Problem

Whitney Howland has worked as the Human Trafficking Victim Services Social Worker at the International Institute of St. Louis since 2016. In this role, she provides intensive case management to clients and screens potential victims of trafficking, provides technical assistance and training to service providers. Currently she acts as the agency's liaison to the Federal District of Eastern Missouri's Human Trafficking Task Force, and she organizes the St. Louis Rescue and Restore Coalition.

Apr 10: The Assault on Global Democracy

Ryan D. Kulik has spent over 20 years working as a lobbyist and public relations consultant with an emphasis in Government communications. He specializes in taking controversial issues and creating new partnerships with the goal of implementing positive social change. Through SeedSing.com, Mr. Kulik has created a community of independent journalists who, without influence or bias, spotlight the politics and popular culture of the day.

Recent years have seen the global communities get more connected with the rise of inexpensive technology. Many people, like Mr. Kulik, thought this new global connectivity would advance the humanist philosophy and bring freedom to a larger group of people. The rise of nationalist figures like Donald Trump, Narendra Modi, and Rodrigo Duterte has shown a retreat of traditional humanist values. Is the dream of Global Democracy gone? What does the future of freedom look like?

AAUW of MISSOURI

Plan to attend the AAUW of Missouri Annual Membership Meeting and Leadership Conference at the Holiday Inn Executive Center in Columbia, MO, May 4-5, 2018.

Meet CEO Kim Churches!

Special guest will be our CEO Kimberly Churches. A reception is planned so that you can meet her on Friday, May 4, at 7 pm. On Saturday she will kick off our conference with her keynote address "A Call to Action."

In addition to holding our annual state meeting, other sessions will be offered on social media, how to spot fake news, and a panel discussion on young women's perspectives on today's issues. Early-bird registration and hotel reservations are due April 15. A registration form is at the end of this newsletter.

The state board voted to give $200 to each branch that sends members to the conference to help defray cost; so if you would like to take advantage of having some of your expenses paid, contact Carol or Jan.

If you choose to arrive in Columbia on Friday, consider attending the board meeting at 2 pm in the hotel.

A more detailed article about the conference appears in Missouri in Motion, AAUW MO's newsletter that you received earlier this month. It also is available on the state's website at <http://aauw-mo.aauw.net/>.
